Pentagon Defies Order to Release Torture Photos

◊ http://www.veteransforcommonsense.org ◊

Veterans for Common Sense, a nonpartisan Veterans' organization with 12,000 members, called for a commission to investigate torture allegations, in response to the Pentagon's refusal to release photos and videos from Abu Ghraib and Guantanamo Bay.

In an open letter, signed by more than 2,000 veterans and supporters (including 5 flag-rank officers and more than 200 commissioned officers), the Veterans urged Congress and the President to "commit -- immediately and publicly -- to support the creation of an independent commission to investigate and report on the detention and interrogation practices of U.S. military and intelligence agencies deployed in the war on terror."

TAKE ACTION NOW!

CALL YOUR CONGRESSMEN NOW AND URGE THEM TO FORMALLY INVESTIGATE THE BUSH ADMINISTRATION'S DETENTION AND INTERROGATION PRACTICES!

CALL THE CAPITOL SWITCHBOARD AT 1-877-SOB-USOB (1-877-762-8762) AND ASK FOR YOUR CONGRESSMAN
