PRESIDENT BUSH: "I HAVE TO GO ON WITH MY LIFE"

Undaunted by counter rallies and even a neighbor's gunshot blasts into the air, Cindy Sheehan, whose son died in Iraq, said Sunday that she will continue her anti-war demonstration near President Bush's ranch until the end of August, when BUSH'S FIVE WEEK VACATION IN THE MIDDLE OF A WAR, is over.

Instead of meeting with Cindy Sheehan, President Bush took a two hour long bicycle ride around his palatial Texas estate ("ranch"). When asked by a reporter from the Austin American-Statesman newspaper, how he could go for a two hour bike ride when he doesn't have time to meet with Cindy Sheehan, the President of the United States calmly and heartlessly replied: "I HAVE TO GO ON WITH MY LIFE."
