REPUBLICANS BLAME FAMILIES & THE MEDIA FOR SHORTFALLS

"Families are discouraging young men and women from enlisting because of all the negative media that's out there," Senator James Inhofe, an Oklahoma Republican, said at a U.S. Senate Armed Services Committee hearing. "With the deluge of negative news that we get daily, it's just amazing to me that anybody would want to sign up," agreed Senator Pat Roberts, a Kansas Republican.

Maybe Republicans should sign up for military service within their own families before criticizing our families.

Plenty of military age folks in your families, Senators!

And what about President Bush's daughters? They are of military age, are not attending college, and spend their days doing...what?

REPUBLICANS SHOULD SERVE THEIR COUNTRY BEFORE THEY CRITICIZE THE REST OF US FOR NOT WANTING TO FIGHT THEIR ILLEGAL WAR!
